

Singapore Malaysia 8-Day Getaway

【Tour fee included】

- ✓ 6 nights in a 4-5 star hotel
- ✓ Full transportation, attraction tickets, bus tickets
- ✓ Full Chinese guided tour
- ✓ Daily hotel breakfast
- ✓ Malaysia: 1 durian fruit banquet, 3 dinners | Singapore: 3 lunches, 2 dinners

【Tour fee not included】

- ✗ Round-trip international air tickets from the United States
- ✗ Alcohol charges in the restaurant
- ✗ Daily tip for tour guide and driver, USD 10 per person,

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1 USA by international flights ➔ Malaysia - Kuala Lumpur

DAY 2 Arrival at Kuala Lumpur International Airport, Malaysia – Kuala Lumpur City Garden Tour

Arrive at Kuala Lumpur International Airport, meet and greet you at the lobby by your professional guide at Sonic Travel , and head to Kuala Lumpur City Centre (approximately 1.5 hours' drive)

The capital city of Kuala Lumpur has always been known as the 'Garden of the City', and the century-old Moorish architecture and modern urban coordinates have made Kuala Lumpur a well-known international metropolis.

Sights include the National Heroes Monument, the Royal Palace of the Head of State, the National Museum, Merdeka Square, Sultan Abdul Samad Tower, Kuala Lumpur City Gallery, and visit the Petronas Twin Towers Skybridge. And enjoy a Chinese dinner at Chunyuan KLCC Restaurant located in the Petronas Twin Towers.

Breakfast: X | Lunch: X | Dinner: Chinese dinner

Hotel: Shangri-la Kuala Lumpur (Deluxe Room) or Similar

DAY 3 Kuala Lumpur – Batu Caves – Genting Highlands Skyworlds – Durian Banquet

Batu Caves: 272 colored staircases take you step by step to feel the sacredness of religion

Take the Skyway to Genting Highlands: Get a bird's-eye view of 130 million years of rainforest from inside the carriage and climb to Genting World in just 10 minutes
Skyworlds Genting Skyworld Theme Park: Consisting of 9 themed zones

spread over 26 acres with a variety of restaurants and shopping outlets, Skyworlds Genting Highlands is the newest tourist attraction in Genting Highlands, and it's never boring to escape the summer here

Taste the local season durian

Breakfast: Hotel | Lunch: Durian Banquet | Dinner: Local dinner

Hotel: Shangri-la Kuala Lumpur (Deluxe Room) or Similar

DAY 4 Kuala Lumpur – Malacca Discovery Tour – Malacca River Cruise

Head to Discovery Tour - Malacca, a city full of history, close to the Strait of Malacca, home to many World Heritage Sites, and a plethora of must-eat cuisines, visits: ★ St. Peter's Church Old Town of Santiago

★ St. Paul's Church ★ Ruins ★

Dutch Executive Office ★ Chinh Hoon Tei

Free time at Jonker Street: Experience the fun of choosing your favorite Malaysian cultural food snacks

Malacca River Cruise (approx. 45 minutes) to see historical sites, beautiful scenery, local culture and traditional "kampung houses" along the way

Breakfast: Hotel | Lunch: Airport Street Self-care | Dinner: Peranakan Dinner

Hotel: Double Tree Hotel (4*) or Similar

DAY 5 Malacca – Singapore by Car: City Tour

Breakfast is served on site. Continue the approximately 3-hour drive to Johor Bahru Customs where our coach and guide will wave goodbye to Johor Bharu 2nd Link.

Once inside Singapore, Singapore City Tour: visit historical and modern landmarks, Marina Bay, Suntec City, The Colonial Quarter.

For lunch, enjoy one of the favorite dishes of the Chinese people, Singaporean-style "Hainanese Chicken Rice", and the chicken can also be grilled or baked in soy sauce for a different taste. This cooking method originated in Hainan, but today it has added a unique Singaporean character. After lunch, check into the hotel for a short rest and take a night tour of Singapore's landmark Merlion Park.

Breakfast: Hotel | Lunch: Hainanese Chicken Rice | Dinner: Chili Crab

Hotel: Capri Hotel Singapore (4*) or Similar

DAY 6 Singapore – Little India – Kampong Glam – Sentosa

After breakfast, head to the bustling ethnic cultural district of Little India –

Singapore's liveliest area

Lunch – Traditional South Indian fish curry head with local delicacies such as grilled meats and Teh Tarik is sure to whet your appetite. How tea appreciators "lift" hot milk tea with rich aroma and flavor is a wonderful craft. Exploration includes a sari costume demonstration, mural viewing, Indian Heritage Centre Afternoon – Singapore Royal Tour Explore Kampong Glam – the former seat of the Malay royal family, known for its two landmarks: the Sultan Mosque, Singapore's oldest and largest mosque, and the former Sultan's Palace (known today as the Malay Heritage Centre). Walk through the streets of Arab Street and Haji Lane. Admire the many traditional businesses: textile wholesalers, perfume merchants, Muslim food caterers, financiers, stone and rattan handicraft retailers, and local fashion stores.

Evening - The most beautiful way to get to Sentosa by cable car from Mount Faber is to enjoy dinner at GOOD OLD DAYS and Sentosa Resorts World Sand

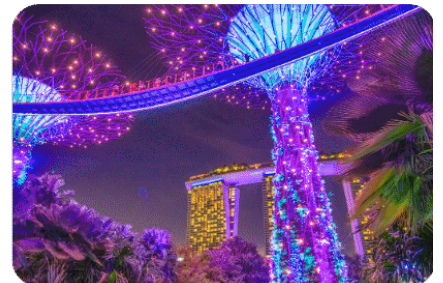

Breakfast: Hotel | Lunch: Local Indian Cuisine | Dinner: Local specialties

Hotel: Capri Hotel Singapore (4*) or Similar

DAY 7 CHINATOWN – NYONYA CULTURE – GARDENS BY THE BAY – GARDEN RHAPSODY LIGHT SHOW – RIVER CRUISE

After breakfast at the hotel, check out and immerse yourself in the Peranakan cultural tour. Step into the wonderful Ruche and Katong cultural districts. This former Peranakan settlement in Singapore is now a gorgeous place. It brings together modern boutiques, artisans with ancient craftsmanship and fascinating cultural essence. Sample some of the classic dishes of Peranakan culture, such as Peranakan zongzi.

Lunch - Peranakan Meal offers fragrant Peranakan cuisine.

In the afternoon, stroll the streets: Chinatown, home to Singapore's early Chinese immigrants and now Singapore's largest cultural hub. Cultural heritage reserves, colorful culture, trendy entertainment venues, rich history and ancient temples are worth a day to savor and explore.

When you come to Chinatown, you can't miss some traditional snacks and delicious pastries.

There are many tram street stalls in Simi Street and its surrounding neighborhoods. Sells all kinds of trinkets and cute souvenirs.

Evening - Gardens by the Bay, the extraordinary landscape, comfortable spaces and lush greenery of Marina Bay Waterfront in the heart of Singapore. Just like Raffles sailing on the river, you'll board a small boat and cruise along the iconic Singapore River, disembarking at Clarke Quay, now a riverside festival village where tourists and locals scramble to find the hottest nightlife venues and most popular restaurants.

Breakfast: Hotel | Lunch: Peranakan Cuisine | Dinner: On Own at Food Court (Recommended Street Dinner – Lao Pasar Satay Street)

Hotel: Capri Hotel Singapore (4*) or Similar

DAY 8 Singapore Changi Airport ✈ Sweet Home

Fly Home today or Connect to Our Thailand Tour