Day 3: Bangkok – Pattaya (Coach) (B/L/-)

After breakfast, we visit the Grand Palace and the temple of the Emerald Buddha (Wat Phra Kaew). It is regarded as the most sacred site and spiritual heart of the Thai Kingdom. It is a complex of buildings featuring the fusion of traditional Thai architecture and the 19-th century European style. The temple buildings are decorated with gilt and color glass mosaics that reflect the sunlight and then we see the temple glow. The Emerald Buddha in the temple is the main attraction. The revered figurine is made from a solid one piece of green jade. After a day of visit, take you to have seafood and international buffet lunch on 76th floor at Baiyoke Sky to allow the full panoramic and spectacular bird's eye view of the city and far beyond. Then continue to Pattaya. A seaside resort province on the Eastern Gulf Coast of Thailand, about 150 km southeast of Bangkok. Check-in at hotel, time for leisure and overnight.

NOTE: Please prepare proper attire for temple visits, e.g., shirts with sleeves, long pants, and long skirts covering knees (NO torn pants, no tight or any sexy outfits).

At the night, enjoy cabaret show. The Alcazar show is one of the most anticipated Cabaret shows where professional performers are dancing in stunning costumes and millions of Thai Baht are used to apply colorful, complicated light effects and modern stage technology into creating the most extraordinary art product for all of its audiences.
