Itinerary Features

§ Marrakech, one of the four royal cities, has written a thousand years of history for Morocco under the Berber word “Land of the Gods”, and as a city of great character, ochre is its representative color.

§ Mezoukha transfer to four-wheeled vehicles, to the long dreamed of the Sahara Desert, undulating sand dunes stretching to the sky, the unique Sahara Desert, with the illusion of light and weaving different beautiful hues, but also the realization of the endless expanse of the vastness. (Special arrangement to stay in a tented hotel to experience the starry sky of the desert.)

§ The Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba (Mezquita) · In addition to containing a Christian chapel, the interior features 850 columns and arches made of onyx, jasper, and marble, arranged in geometric patterns.

§ The Sagrada Família Located in Barcelona, this world-famous city landmark was designed by the genius architect Antoni Gaudí. Construction began in 1882 and remains unfinished to this day. It has already been inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Daily Itinerary
