

Morocco 10 days

【Package included】

- ✓ 8 nights hotel accommodation (4-5 stars).
- ✓ Transportations, attraction tickets (per itinerary).
- ✓ Chinese speaking guide. One bottle water per person per day
- ✓ Daily breakfast, 7 lunches, 8 dinners (per itinerary).
- ✓ Headsets are arranged for more than 15 people

【Package excluded】

- ✗ International round-trip air tickets
- ✗ Beverages at restaurants
- ✗ Recommended tips for tour leader, guide & driver: 10 USD per day/person
- ✗ Expenses of personal in nature

Double Room: USD$2,699 up per person

Single Supplement: $800

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1 USA ➔ Marrakesh, Morocco

Fly to Morocco in North Africa ~ Marrakech!

DAY 2 Arrives in Marrakesh

Arrive at Marrakech International Airport and visit the exterior Koutoubiya Mosque, a landmark of Marrakech with an incredible piece of history.

Then visit the Bahia Palace (admission included), one of the few royal palaces in Morocco that is open to the public and preserved by Marriot, with gardens, atriums, ornate rooms, fountains, each carefully designed. The size of the rooms was designed according to the favor of the king's wives, but each wife's room had its own atrium.

After dinner, head to Jemaa el-Fna, the largest open-air square in Morocco. From sunrise until late at night, you can see Indian snake dancers, Arabs selling spiced tea, old Moroccans telling stories and fortunes, various performances, and countless stalls selling food, drinks, clothing, carpets, furnishings, leather, and handicrafts. It is like Lan Kwai Fong in Hong Kong and Xintiandi in Shanghai, because of this square, Marrakech has infinite vitality. We can choose to experience a variety of snacks and freshly squeezed juices in the square, or we can enjoy the panoramic view of the square at sunset in the nearby viewing café.

* Reminder: the sleepless square is bustling, pay attention of your valuables, and ignore anyone who close up casually. If you want to buy something, be sure to negotiate the price and the currency of the price to avoid unnecessary trouble.

Breakfast: X|Lunch: X|Dinner: Exquisite dinner at the hotel

Hotel: Radisson Blu Marrakech 5* or Similar

DAY 3 Marrakech - Ouarzazate

Visit Jardin Majorelle (admission included), a private garden that the famous costume designer Yves Saint Laurent bought with his partner Pierre Berge in Marrakech, Morocco. The bright blue color of the courtyard fills the façade of the building, light and shadow play in the carved panes, tropical plants such as palms and cacti grow from the sand and gravel soil towards the sun, and the Islamic style decoration carries a strong Moroccan style.

After lunch, drive for about 4 and a half hours to the village of Al Benhadu. Visit the village of Ait-Ben-Haddou (admission included), where this ancient Berber city in southern Morocco was an important gateway in ancient times, exceptionally well preserved and inhabited by locals, and was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1987. The ancient city is built using terracotta mud bricks unique to Morocco, allowing people to fully experience the red charm of Morocco.

Then drive about 40 minutes to Ouarzazate in Ouarzazate is home to the largest studio in Morocco (admission included), a city full of world cultural sites, and rich history that is known as Mollywood.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Kuscous|Dinner: Local Dinner

Hotel: Oscar Hotel By Atlas Studios 4* or Similar

DAY 4 Quarazate - Merzouga

A 3-hour drive to the Dardès Canyon. In the first century AD, King Anu, the ruler of ancient Iberia, named the Dades River, which originates high in the Atlas Mountains, and the rock walls near the river form a colorful natural canyon landscape from 200 to 500 meters. After dinner, drive 3 hours to the desert edge city of Ilfud, which serves as a stopover into the desert. We will take a 4WD to the Mezzurca Desert (around 1 hour).

Choose your own desert activities: ride a dromedary unique North Africa through the desert, and quietly stroll on the Sahara Desert under the afterglow of the sunset to enjoy the beauty of the Sahara Desert; Or hop aboard a handsome sand buggy ride over rolling sand dunes for sweeping views of the Sahara.

*Reminder: When entering the desert, you can prepare a scarf as a prop for taking photos, and also play a role in shielding the wind and sand.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Hotel Exquisite Dinner

Hotel: Caravanseraï Luxury Desert Camp or Similar

DAY 5 Merzouga - Fes

The 4WD drive from the desert to Erfoud for a transfer of coaches. Driving all day to Fez, known as one of Morocco's four ancient imperial cities, we enter the Atlas Mountains region, where the beautiful valley scenery rivals the Grand Canyon of the United States. Arrive in Medirt for lunch.

After that, we came to the small town of Eveland, located in the Atlas Mountains at an altitude of 1664 meters, 60 kilometers south of Feis, which began to be founded in 1929 and is a small town with a population of only about 10,000 people, attracting countless tourists to vacation here every year. There is no trace of Moroccan culture here. Arrive in the evening at the ninth-century ancient city of Fez, ranked by the famous American magazine (Traveler) as one of the 10 most romantic cities in the world.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Local Traditional Show + Bastian Pie

Hotel: Les Meinides Fes 5* or Similar

DAY 6 Fes - Chefchaouen

Enter the ancient city of Fez, travel back a thousand years, donkeys were still the main means of transportation for the people, visit the medieval old town there: the Quran School Bou Inania medersas (admission included), Nejjarine Spring (exterior), Idris Mausoleum (ancient capital builder) (exterior) and the world's first university, Calaviyne University (exterior), the gate of the Andalu Mosque (exterior), the honeycomb nest handmade leather dyeing workshop in the ancient city. Fez is the cultural center of Morocco and the old town was officially listed as a World Heritage Site in 1981. Come to the observation deck high outside the city, overlooking the entire old city, as if admiring a living picture of the Qingming River.

After lunch, drive to the blue and white town of Chefchaouen.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Hotel Exquisite Dinner

Hotel: Hotel Parador or Similar or other specialty B&B

DAY 7 Chefchouen - Tangier

Tangier: Cap Spartel, Cape Spartar, west of Tangier, is the starting point of the Strait of Gibraltar! More than 300 meters high headland, there is a myth and history mixed Hercules cave (African cave) Cave of Hercules (admission included) in the seaside rock wall, walking into the winding sea cave, a bright shape in front of the legendary Hercules slash the creation of the Strait of Gibraltar, and the shape of the cave mouth is like a map of Africa opposite to the left and right, which is amazing.

Arrive inside Tangier and experience the thousand-year-old heritage of North African Arabian culture, visit the ancient city of Tangier, Medina, and the ancient castle of Kasbah, overlooking the port and the Strait of Gibraltar, and if the weather is good, have the opportunity to look at the Spanish mainland opposite.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Hotel Exquisite Dinner

Hotel: Hotel Royal Tulip or Similar

DAY 8 Tangir - Asilah - Rabat Rabat

Acyla: is an artistic town in Morocco, with predominantly white houses and a Mediterranean look. Since 1978, this seaside town has held a mural festival every August, where mural artists from all over the world gather to fully display the charm of art on the walls of the old town. Only the best will be preserved, but only for one year, and when the next year's murals come, they will be replaced by new works. Therefore, the murals seen by tourists who go every year are different. It is precisely in this way that this process of finding and discovering murals has become a highlight of visiting here.

The Four Imperial Cities - Rabat: Rabat, where modernity and history coexist, is the capital of Morocco after independence in 1956, and was listed as a World Heritage Site in 2012.

Kasbah of oudayas (admission included), originally built in the 12th century to defend the Berber kingdom, is a square fortress with geometric figures and flower totems, a mixture of Arabian and Muhadic styles; Afterwards, we specially arranged to taste the authentic Mint tea of the Moors and feel the fragrant and refreshing "Moroccan whisky".

The exquisite and ornate tomb of Mohammed V Mausoleum (admission included), the resting place where the people commemorated the independence of Sultan Mohammed V, is like the starry blue-green exterior, wall decorations and water springs decorated everywhere; The 45.6-meter-tall Hassan Tower, which stands tall on the boundless pillared square, stands tall and prominent, reflecting the traces of time without diminishing its grandeur.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Hotel Exquisite Dinner

Hotel: La Tour Hassan Palace 5* or Similar

DAY 9 Rabat - Casablanca

Go to Morocco's largest city Casablanca tour, unveil the mystery, explore the beauty of "North African Paris", Casablanca on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean, full of a strong southern European atmosphere, stroll in © Mohammed V Square Mohammed V Square, is around the administrative center of various government agencies, under the French colonization, modern and white architecture, subverting the impression of the Islamic city impression, showing the unique style of Casablanca.

★ Hassan II Mosque, a glazed green minaret symbolizing the most brilliant pearl of Casablanca, nearly two-thirds of the reclaimed building area, showing the combination of modern technology and faith, perfectly showing the Moroccan style on Islamic architecture.

Breakfast: Hotel|Lunch: Local Cuisine|Dinner: Hotel Exquisite Dinner

Hotel: Radisson Blu Casablanca 5* or Similar

DAY 10 Casablanca ✈ USA

After breakfast at the hotel this morning, end your 10-day trip to Morocco and book a suitable flight out of Casablanca according to your needs.

The company's staff only provides one-time departure service from the hotel. Guests can arrange their own transportation to the airport