Daily Itinerary

DAY 1 USA ✈ Amsterdam

DAY 2 Amsterdam

After the flight arrival, we will head to the Windmill Village - Zaanse Schans, located just 15 minutes north of Amsterdam in the Zaanse Schans area. Here, you can see the lively rotation of windmills. Zaanse Schans is an open-air museum for tourists, but for the Dutch people of the 17th and 18th centuries, it was a place of life and work. You can witness how the Dutch utilized windmills to generate power and grind wood for paint production. Additionally, you can explore the charming residential area with green streets and white lace curtains, showcasing the authentic Dutch atmosphere.

We will visit important landmarks in Amsterdam city center, such as the Royal Palace of Amsterdam and Dam Square. You will also have the opportunity to visit a diamond cutting factory and learn how diamonds transform from ordinary stones to dazzling gems through precise cutting. Amsterdam is one of the world's leading diamond centers! The cut of a diamond directly affects its brightness. Unlike color and clarity, the grade of cut is determined by human craftsmanship rather than nature.

Enjoy a Canal Cruise (including boat ticket) to admire the scenic beauty of the canals. The unique architectural style of Amsterdam and beautiful European-style waterfront houses will captivate your eyes. The exterior views of buildings from the 16th and 17th centuries, representing the prosperity of the Golden Age, are reflected in these meticulously constructed structures.

DAY 3 Amsterdam - Giethoorn - Kasteel De Haar - Amsterdam

Giethoorn: Giethoorn, also known as the "Green Venice," is famous for its reflection of green houses on the water. The roofs of the houses are made of thatched reeds, providing insulation from the heat in summer and protection from rain and sun. What was once a result of poverty and limited resources has now become a high-income residential area, showcasing the stark contrast over time. To experience the beauty of Giethoorn, a canal tour (including boat ticket) is arranged, allowing you to glide through the serene village on a flat-bottomed wooden boat. Giethoorn is referred to as the "Venice of the North" and the "Dutch Venice." It gained its fame because there are no cars or roads here, only a dense network of canals and 176 small wooden bridges connecting the houses. The primary mode of transportation for the locals is the traditional punt boat, propelled by a long pole. As many houses can only be reached by water, even the local postman delivers mail by boat, and weddings are celebrated by taking a bridal boat to the church. Centuries ago, when the first settlers arrived, they discovered that peat was the most abundant and only resource underground. Through years of excavation, numerous canals and lakes of various sizes were formed. Subsequently, in order to facilitate the transportation of goods by boats, the channels were connected and widened, resulting in the interwoven network of waterways seen today. In present-day Giethoorn, apart from the joyful voices of tourists, the loudest sounds you'll hear are the quacking of ducks and the chirping of birds, creating an enchanting fairy-tale world secluded from the rest of the world. Here, you can peacefully enjoy a holiday and fulfill your European fairy-tale dream by immersing yourself in the gifts of nature.

Kasteel De Haar: Visit Kasteel De Haar, a castle dating back to the 14th century located near Utrecht. The castle underwent restoration in the 19th century. Explore the interior of Kasteel De Haar (including admission ticket), and admire the garden adorned with numerous roses. The Dutch, who have a fondness for flowers, often visit with their families to appreciate the ever-changing scenery of flowers in the garden according to the seasons, while also enjoying the refreshing air amidst the woods.
